BREAKFAST. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately-flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Made simply with boiling water or milk. fence. Verdiet, not guilty. The King vs Mawae (k). Malicious branding. This was an appeal from the Honuaula in this country with any reasonable chance of Court. Mr. Preston entered a nolle prosequi. The King vs Daniel Puhi. Furnishing liquor to native Hawaiians. An appeal from decision of the District Justice of Makawao. The defendant, who was represented by Mr. J. W.

Kalua, was acquitted.

The King vs Daniel Mahoe. Having opium in his possession. Messrs, Kalua and Nahaku for the defence. This was also an appeal brought up from the District Court of Makawao. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and a sentence of three months' imprisonment, with a fine of $50 and costs was pronounced,

The King vs Hopii (k) and Kaihe (k), per-jury; the King vs Kaula (k), housebreaking. In each of these cases, which came up by commitment from the District Court of Makawao, a nolle prosequi was entered; as also in the case the King vs Hao (k) and Palaualelo (k), for larceny, an appeal brought up from the same The King vs Kauhi (k). Larceny of pigs.

Appeal from the same Court. In this case the eision of the District Justice, inflicting one month's imprisonment, was upheld, and the bond of $200 was declared forfeited. Mr. Kalua The King vs Kealoha. Larceny. An appeal from the District Justice of Molokai. The de-ndant had not been able to obtain bail and had died in prison. The King vs Kamakao. Assault with a loaded pistol. Mr. Hartwell was counsel for defendant, who pleaded guilty, and was fined one dollar, and sentenced to imprisonment for one year. Mr. Preston entered a nolle prosequi in each of the following cases :- The King vs Kaaihue (k) and Kohanohano (k), charged with an attempt at larceny; the King vs Kuheleloa, embezzlement; and the King vs Kalani (k), per-

This closed the Hawaiian jury cases. The King vs Ed. Morgan and Antone Pereda. Assault with intent to rob. Mr. Hartwell appeared for the defendants, who were acquitted. The King vs John Allardyce, Moss Kennedy, and W. S. Jameson, Burglary, This case excited much interest, the prisoners being accused of the robbery of money and bonds from the safe of Mr. E. Jones, which was effected so mysteriously some months ago. Mr. Hartwell was counsel for Allardyce, and Mr. Hatch for Kennedy and Jameson. There was no evidence to connect the prisoners with the robbery. The suspicion against them appears to have been excited by their having been found playing a game of poker together shortly after the robbery, on which occasion Jameson had a number of sovereigns in his possession. A pipe had also been picked up near the scene of the robbery which was alleged to be Jameson's. The possession of the sovereigns was satisfactorily accounted for, and Jameson produced his own pipe, which was like that in the hands of the police, with evidence to show that it had not been out of his possession. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty in favor of all the prisoners. Through delay in the sitting of the Court, caused by the quarantine regulations, these men have already been about seven months in confinement. The King vs John Allardyce, and the King vs Akino, two appeals by the Crown against decisions of the District Justice of M. hawao, were

The King vs J. B. Silloway. Selling spirituous liquors without a license. This was also an appeal from the Makawao Police Court. A verdict of guilty was brought in, and the prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of $500. CIVIL CAUSES.

A. Brounsell vs S. T. Alexander. Assumpsi Mr. M. Kealoha for the plaintiff, and Mr. W. O. Smith for the defendant. This was an appeal from the local Cocrt, and resulted in a decision in favor of the defendant.

J. C. Kirkwood vs G. D. Sylva and Makah (k). Assumpsit for $100 on a promissory note. This was also an appeal case. A verdict in favor of the plaintiff; against the defendant Sylva only, was brought in. Mr. Preston was counsel for the plaintiff. Maholo for defendants. Patrick Shaw vs T. Akanaliilii. Assumpsit for $1,102 for cattle sold and delivered. Mr Preston appeared for Shaw, and Mr. Hartwell for Akanaliilii. By agreement between the parties, a judgment was given for plaintiff for $480 in addition to the like sum which had been paid into Court. A. Fornander vs George Miner. Assumpsit Mr. Preston appeared for plaintiff. The defendant confessed judgment for the balance of the debt, $220 having been paid.

W. H. Cummings vs J. Kauaua. Assumpsitappeal from the District Court. Mr. J. W. Kalua for plaintiff, Mr. W. C. Jones for defendant. In this case the jury was waived, and the Court gave judgment for the plaintiff for $100, interest and costs. Kailianu vs Kalehuawehe. Replevin and damages. Mr. Nahaku tor plaintiff, who obtained a verdict for $25 and costs. Mr. J. W. Kalua appeared for the defendant.

DIVORCE CASES, There were seven divorce suits on the Calendar, of which four were withdrawn, and one was continued till next term. In the cases Holau (w) vs Pokai (k), and Moke Kawailiilii (k) vs Kale Kaolanialii, the divorces were granted.

IRISH DEPOPULATION .- Since 1841 the population of Ireland has decreased from 8,175,000 to 5,160,000 in 1881. This is the most striking upon the condition of the Irish people at home. Allowing as much as we may for the impulsive, mercurial and restless character of the Irish people, this glaring fact shows that there must be a deep-seated sense of wrong and oppression among them, or they would not expatriate themselves by the million, as they have done. It shows that there is something lacking in the institutions of their native land to hold their attachment, and very poor chances to sustain life. It might be that the Irish people, if emancipated from English rule, would not wisely rule themselves, and that they would be revolutionary and fickle in the administration of their own affairs; but it is scarcely possible that matters could be worse than the above STABLI statistics of population show. If the diminution for the next eighty years, the Irish question would be solved, there would be no more Irishmen in Ireland for England or anybody else to oppress.

FROM the Liverpool Mercury of July 9th, we learn that the White Star steamship Britannic is firmly ashore at Kilmore, and, according to a Waterford correspondent, not the slightest hope is now felt of getting her off. All the passengers were saved, and a large part of the cargo.

From Our Kohala Correspondent.

KOHALA, August 10th, 1881. DEAR P. C. A .- Our planters have nearly finished planting; the rains have not been as AUGUST 20, 1881. heavy as we could hope, still enough for us to go on with that work. C. F. Hart & Co.'s Mill is the only one grinding, and they are nearly through, with a crop aggregating, say 1,400 tons. Mr. Hind begins again on Monday, on the cane of T. J. Hayselden. This planter has about 70 acres yet to cut, while Mr. Woods, for grind. These fields, with some cane from Messrs, Filder & Brodie, Kaclemakule, and Mr. Hind, will make up the crop for Hawi mill for 1881. I shall soon be in a position to give you the total output for this district for the year 1881, and it will be interesting to compare the actual yield with the figures I gave you as the approximate yield for this year's crop.

Our railway is making very considerable headway. It is expected to be in Kohala proper ere the close of the year, and then the planters similar case, Mr. J. W. Kalua was counsel for | will begin to feel that they are somebody. Mr. the defendant, in whose favor a verdict was Wilder proposes such arrangements as will beneespecially for those who are scarcely " out of beyond Honoipu; the rails are nearly due from toxicating liquors. This appeal from a decision abroad, and when they arrive we may look for Chapin. The Dr. now holds a large planting right for the Halawa Mill. He is about to go The King vs Nauliuli. Appeal on same charge.
Mr. Hartwell appeared for defendant, who was acquitted.
The King vs S. Keohokalole. Appeal on same charge, Messrs, Kalua and Aholo for the decrease.

The King vs Nauliuli. Appeal on same charge.

East for pleasure and recreation, and leaves his brother in charge. We have now in Kohala a very eminent physician, Dr. Hagan, who has already fully established his reputation by successfully operating on several difficult cases, who were told they could not be operated upon life. This gentleman is enjoying a very large practice here.

A few weeks ago Messrs. Filder & Brodie ordered from Honolulu 7 shipped Chinamen. The Celestials arrived on the Thursday, and on the Monday following the whole lot had vamosed the ranch. Now, Sir, I, as one of the many indignants, must protest against the thoroughly stupid business of shipping Celestials, at an advance of $100 per man. The system is simply stupid. A more absurd arrangement cannot well be imagined; what security has the planter who engages such laborers, that he can get the service that is paid for? None whatever! Not one in a dozen of those who engage such scum can identify them, (if found) and they are seldom caught, and I must say (though unfeelingly) for I have never had the rascals in my service, that the sooner this system of " advances" is abolish ed the better for everybody, and the planting interest especially. Let us drop this relic of the good old "whaling times." We have passed from "oil" to something much better. Just think of it, seven men are shipped, they receive $700 in advance, they have not worked a single day, they go, and with their departure goes the money, as mentioned. The Chinese coolies now arriving are a most miserable lot of scamps, and it is unquestionably high time for some (if not all) of our "agents" to put their foot down in this paying out money ahead of service rendered I hear that our Sheriff has made a suprema ass of himself lately, but until I hear furthe, 1 Dry withold details. I am, however, more than convinced that the time has arrived when this community onght to be served by one possessing be said in favor of the present incumbent, even if he has built himself a handsome residence during the short time of his official career.
